Subject: [BAYES] Re: Bayes in PA, OH

Hi Ramona..

Yes, I am still trying to find the parents of Rev. Jewell Stephen Bayes of Turkeyfoot Township, Somerset County, PA. He was my fourth great-grandfather. I suspect that his family came from New England as opposed to Virginia and Maryland, where there were many Bayes families because of his name Jewell, which was the family name of a prominent New England family, and I know that the family name was often used as a first name in the past.

When I ran the name Jewell Bayes through my webferret search engine I discovered yet another Jewell Bayes who was living in Cleaveland, Ohio but he was much younger than our Jewell Bayes. His father's name was listed as being Pierre Bayes. I do know, in researching the origin of the Bayes name, that it is a Norman name from the city of Bayeaux in Normandy, France. The strange thing about the second Jewell Bayes, the younger one, is that he was also a reverend. There has to be a connection somewhere, but I do not know where.

Jewell Bayes was the father of Thomas Bayes, who had a daughter named Eleanor Bayes, who married a Scotch-Irish immigrant from County Down named Thomas McKibbin Jr., who arrived in PA at the age of six in 1812. Thomas was two years younger than his wife Eleanor. They were the parents of my great-grandfather GF Robert Irvine McKibbin, who was a civil war vet. Robert had a son named Royal who had a son named Hugh Robert, → F who was my father.

Thomas McKibben

I wish that I had more information to help me trace the Rev Jewell Stephen Bayes or his wife Nancy McMillen, but I am up against the old brick wall on this one. Also, I had thought that the wife of Thomas Bayes was Anna Wright McMillen, and now I have discovered that she was a widow and that her family name was not McMillen but Wright, so another door has opened that I must walk through. I am still a McMillen (I think) through Nancy McMillen, the wife of Jewell Bayes.

That is about all that I have. What do you have?

Marilyn

REUNION.

The annual reunion of the Bayes and Mikesell families took place last week at the home of Henry Bayes, in Williams county, and was largely attended by parties from Michigan and Ohio, and was a most enjoyable event. The exercises consisted of recitations, music, etc. The old officers were elected for the ensuing year when the exercises closed with the reading of a brief history of the two families by C. W. Cornell.

From the most reliable information I can obtain, it appears that about the year 1790, a young German by the name of George Mikesell located in Somerset county, Pa., where he, by his integrity, frugality, and industry, became a very prominent citizen, and was respected by all who knew him. In the year 1795 he was married to Miss Mary Bayes, the daughter of one Jewel W. Bayes, a Methodist minister and a very prominent citizen of that locality. Through this union there was born to him 13 children, 8 sons and 5 daughters. After years of hard struggling, and the death of 4 of his children, he became dissatisfied with being cramped up and toiling among the hills and rocks of the keystone state and in the year 1830, he went west and located a new home in the then inviting fields of Holmes county, Ohio, to which place he moved with his family. Here by his industry and integrity of character, he succeeded in carving out a good home, and was living in comfortable circumstances when a tide of French immigrants came pouring in, settling all around him. This fact and his anxiety for the welfare of his children prompted him to try and find a more promising and congenial locality where his pent up ambition could develop, and where there were broad acres enough so that his children could go out and carve out homes for themselves and their posterity, accordingly in the year 1837 he moved with his family and located in Lucas (now Fulton) county, Ohio. He like all of our earliest pioneers, was an expansionist, and were eager to get into a county or locality where they could give their energies and industries full sweep, and also giving their children a chance to develop their manhood and grow up to become useful citizens and a benefit to their country and to mankind. Here Mr. Mikesell gave his every encouragement and aid to secure the settling up and development of the country. How well he and his companion pioneers have succeed every observer today can easily see.

But as to Mr. Mikesell and his noble wife, their life's work was nearing to a close. In the fall of 1840 the messenger came, and he died at the age of 73 years, and was the first adult person to be buried in what is now called the Mikesell cemetery. It was but a few days when his wife, Mary, was called to go and journey with him through the realms of eternal bliss. She was laid to rest by his side, aged 67 years. Although it is now over 60 years since this, our sad bereavement, yet I must say that I have never attended a more sad and sorrowful funeral, nor have I seen more grief than was depicted upon the countenances of that little band of pioneers. While we remember in our sorrow the good works of these noble spirits, let us emulate them and show to the world that although they are gone yet their good works are appreciated and we live in everlasting remembrance of them. Of his children who lived to manhood and womanhood, the eldest, Elizabeth, died in the year 1828, aged 32 years. Of the remaining children who lived and became good and useful citizens, were:

	Died.	Aged.	No. Chil.	Liv.
John Mikesell	1894	96	13
Lydia Rugg his wife	1853	50
George Mikesell, Jr.	1882	80	9	5
Elizabeth Brooks his w.	1897	89
Adam Mikesell	1860	54	9	5
Mary Jones his wife	1887	72
Thomas Mikesell 2d	1881	69	7	5
Margaret Pinkerton his wife	1889	83
Mary Mikesell	1839	38	4	1
John Case her husb'nd	1831	42
James Mikesell	1870	53	4	1
Elizabeth Fishburn his wife	1880	59
William Mikesell	1883	73	4	2
Margarette Bayes his wife	1855	44

These are the children of George Mikesell, Sen., who although losing four, during their infancy and childhood, yet has bequeathed to the citizenship of our country 50 grand children, 19 of whom are still alive, to say nothing about the 3 score or more of great grand children. Well may the world call him blessed.

Our first knowledge of the Bayes family commences about the year 1735, when two brothers of English and Scotch descent came and located in Somerset county, Pa. Their names were Hugh and Jewel W. Bayes, the former being a civil engineer, the latter a Methodist preacher and at that time a great admirer of the Wesleys. It is of the latter, Jewel W. Bayes, that shall be the first subject of this sketch. He was married to a Miss Nancy McMillin, to which union was born 5 children, and named as follows: Thomas, John, Mary, Margarette and Nancy, of these daughters, Mary became the wife of George Mikesell, the subject of our former narrative. Margarette was married to one Peter Black to these were born one son, Jeremiah C. Black, who later became a very prominent lawyer and jurist of national repute, he being attorney general during Buchanan's administration. Peter shortly died and his widow married a man by the name of Metz, who became the father of Jacob Metz, a man so universally noted in this neighborhood for his eccentricities. The youngest daughter, Nancy, was married to one James McMillen. Of the two sons, Thomas was married to Anna Wright, and John was married to Nancy Jane Wright, thus two brothers marrying two sisters, which was as common an occurence in those days as it is now. Jewel W. Bayes was born in the year 1734 and died 1785, aged 51 years. About the year 1818 the two brothers with their families moved west, and located in Holmes county, Ohio, where by industry and frugality they reared new and comfortable homes, each being leaders in the best societies of their locality. Thomas being a blacksmith by trade was daily brought into contact with some one of his neighbors, and he became a general counsellor and advisor for all. His wife died about the year 1836, when he sold his farm to John Newcomer, and he and his sons sought newer fields and broader acres. In 1837 he moved to Clinton township, Lucas (now Fulton) county, Ohio, where each located and commenced the battle of life anew. Thomas Bayes was a man of more than ordinary abilities and force of character, and being a man possessing good executive abilities, he was called to occupy a great many positions of trust and honor. Governor Lucas of Ohio commissioned him as the first Justice of the Peace, for Clinton township, which office he held for several terms, being a man possessed of all the finer feelings of human nature, he was one of the greatest of friends of the poor. He was universally respected by all, but his life work came to an end at last. He died in the year 1850 at the age of 75 years, leaving 7 sons and daughters, and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. The names of his children who survived him were:

	Died.	Age.	No. Child.	Liv.
James Bayes	1882	83	8	5
Martha Cunningham his wife
Thomas Bayes, Jr.	1889	82	9	5

with all propriety be said of him, with the exception that he was a very enthusiastic Methodist and a great admirer of John and Charles Wesley, the founders of Methodism. His was the home of all the ministers visiting that locality, and he being a leader in the church, he was always called upon to settle all the little bickerings or strife that might spring up between the pioneers of his neighborhood. Being a most devout christian he spent a great deal of time in visiting the sick and needy and ministering to the wants of the poor. His wife died about the year 1822, after which he married Mrs. Jane Stanton nee McMillen, who proved to be a kind and affectionate helpmate during the remainder of his life. He resided on his old homestead in Holmes county until he died, which occurred about the year 1846. John Bayes was the father of nine children—six sons and three daughters, the most of whom were living in his locality at the time of his death. The names of his children were:

	No. Chil.	Liv.	Died.	Age.
Margarette Bayes	7	4	1860	61
James Cornell her husband			1884	79
Thomas Bayes	2		1815	44

Although it is now nearly three score years and ten since I came upon the stage of action and was intimately associated with those early pioneers, yet my mind frequently reverts back to the many incidents and trials, which were incident to a pioneer life. But they are nearly all gone. In fact so many of them have already gone to their reward, that with regret we note their vacant places and realize that the inevitable years will soon gather us all in. The men and women who built the first homes in the then wilderness were not common people. They wore no broadcloth or silk, and fashion and useless polish were strangers to them. In their plain homes and primitive surroundings, they with open hands and open hearts, met upon a common social level. All through these long years they were unconsciously weaving webs of history, which speaks of the doings of this interesting band, every word of which ought to be cherished by us and every possible fragment gathered and saved in memory of our fathers and mothers, and to their honor and for the benefit of ourselves and those who may live after us. May God help us to revere their memory and follow in their footsteps.

C. W. CORNELL.

Note: The first knowledge of our BAYES family is Jewel BAYES an d his brother Hugh about 1755 in Somerset Co. Pennsylvania . They were of English and Scotch descent. Then about 181 8 Jewel's sons John and Thomas moved their families to Holm es Co. Ohio. John was a very enthusiastic Methodist and a g reat admirer of John and Charles Wesley, founders of Method ism. John's home was the home of all the ministers visitin g the area. He was a great leader of the church, he was alw ays called upon to settle all the little bickerings in th e neighborhood. Being a most devout Christian he spent a g reat deal of time visiting the sick and needy and ministeri ng to the wants of the poor.

Castle Garden, N. Y., she had never before seen a negro. In New London, Conn., she was married to a sea captain named Thomas Cary, who was afterward lost at sea. She then married Mr. McManus and is now living with him in Van Wert.

JAMES J. McMILLEN, a retired farmer and leading citizen of Ridge township, Van Wert county, Ohio, son of James W. and Mary (Leach) McMillen, was born in Somerset county, Pa., December 23, 1827. The father was also a native of Somerset county, Pa., and a son of William McMillen. The father of William McMillen was a native of Ireland, who settled in Pennsylvania. William McMillen received a common school education and learned the shoemaker's trade. He also was born in Somerset county, Pa. His wife, a Miss McKnight before marriage, was also a native of Ireland and when a child came with her parents to Somerset county, Pa. They were the parents of six children; viz.: James W.; John, who in his youth went south; William, who was killed by the bite of a dog; Jane, wife of Zachriah White, of Somerset county, Pa.; Nancy, wife of John Stanton; and a daughter, who died in her twentieth year. Dennis McKnight, father of Mrs. McMillen, was a corporal in the American army during the Revolution, was in the battle of Bunker Hill, and served to the end of the war.

James W. McMillen was born December 22, 1794, was reared a farmer and learned the shoemaker's trade from his father. He pursued his trade, however, only so far as to provide shoes for his own family. To his marriage with Mary Leach were born the following children: Martha, wife of John Mumaugh of Cowden, Ill.; William, deceased in infancy; John, also deceased in infancy; Joseph L., a merchant and miller of Owaneco, Ill.; Jane, widow of Abraham East, a farmer of Washington township, Van Wert, county, Ohio; James J., the subject of this sketch; Sydney A., deeeased in childhood; Ephriam, broom manufacturer of Defiance, Ohio; Eli, of Cowden, Ill.; Miranda, deceased wife of George Clutter, also deceased. Mary (Leach) McMillen was born in 1796, in Pennsylvania, and was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. In 1830 James W. McMillen emigrated from Somerset county, Pa., to Knox county, Ohio, making the trip in a wagon, in which he brought his family and household goods. He entered a tract of 200 acres of government land, and established his young family in a rented house in Brownsville, while he cleared a space and built a house of logs on his land. For twelve years he was identified with the agricultural interests of that county. He then disposed of his Knox county farm and moved to Allen county, where he purchased a farm on which he lived the remainder of his life, dying in March, 1880, having lost his wife on March 27, 1878. Politically, he was a stanch supporter of the democracy. He united with the United Brethern church, in early life, but later joined the Methodist Episcopal church. Associated with his father he assisted in building the famous first national pike between Philadelphia and Pittsburg. He was a man of fine physique, possessed unusual force of character, was kind and benevolent in his practices, upright and honorable in his dealings, and a leader of men in the community in which he lived.

James J. McMillen was educated in the common schools of Knox and Allen counties, then taught in a little log school-house, furnished with puncheon benches and slab floor. He also engaged in teaching in Conrad district, Marion township, Allen county, Ohio, where he taught two terms. In 1852 he spent one term in Delaware university, Delaware, Ohio, after which he again engaged in teaching. With the money thus earned he attended a select school at Allentown, Ohio. September 7, 1854, he was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Gilliland, daughter of James G. and Margaret (Lawson) Gilliland. To their union ten children were born, viz: Joseph Warren, a prominent farmer and produce dealer of Union township; Alice, widow of M. D. Mann, and living with her two children in Van Wert; Phebe, who died in infancy; Alonzo B., a prominent lawyer of Albuquerque, N. M.; Ida, wife of Thomas Pollock, who lives near Middlepoint, Ohio; Charles S., farmer and hay dealer of Woodburn, Ind.; Walter, who died in childhood; twin brothers, Albert and Delbert, of Van Wert county, Ohio, and Hattie, the wife of Edward Carlo of Van Wert. The reader is here invited to peruse the history of the Gilliland family, to be found in another part of this volume.

In 1852, Mr. McMillen engaged in general merchandising at Elida, Ohio, to which he added, in 1856, a grain and produce business. The following year he sold his store, and gave his entire attention to the buying and selling of grain, in which he was quite successful. In 1858 he purchased sixty acres of land in Allen county and began farming and dealing in stock. This he continued until 1860, when he moved to his present home, in Ridge township. He has cleared his farm from the woods, improved it with a neat residence and substantial farm buildings, and everywhere it bears the marks of his careful management and cultivation. In December, 1894, accompanied by his wife, he made a tour of the great west, visiting his sons in Illinois and New Mexico, and the incidents and observations of western life, written by him and published at the time in the Van Wert Times, show him to be a man of keen perception and careful thought. He is not a member of any church, though broad in his charity and liberal in his support of every public good. He was for years a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity, Lima lodge, No. 205, and is held in high esteem by its members. He is also a member of Ridge grange, P. of H., and has done much to advance the agricultural interests of the community in which he lives. Politically he supports the democratic party, and wields a strong influence in the ranks of that party. In his political associations he is above suspicion, and courts victory only by fair means, never buying or selling a vote. He has been honored by the office of township clerk, though he dislikes to have his name before the public. Both he and his wife engaged in teaching in their youth, and every child, with one exception, followed their example. In the record of this family there has been but one death in sixty-two years. No man stands higher in the confidence and esteem of his neighbors than Mr. McMillen, and all his works have been crowned with success.

JOSEPH WARREN McMILLEN, grain dealer and shipper of Van Wert, Ohio, and farmer of Union township, was born in Elida, Allen county, Ohio, July 15, 1855, a son of James J. and Harriet (Gilliland) McMillen. The family came to Van Wert county and settled in Ridge township when our subject was but five years old, and here he grew to manhood and was educated. He assisted on the home farm until twenty-one years of age, and was then for four years engaged in teaching school in York and Ridge townships: resuming agriculture, for five years he farmed in Ridge township, and then purchased a farm of 240 acres in Union township in section No. 16, which is cleared and well improved, and underdrained thoroughly by some 60,000 rods of tiling—his chief product being hay. In 1885, in company with his father, he began buying and shipping hay in large quantities, and this partnership lasted two years, since when our subject has been doing business on his individual account. In 1894 he handled about 600 carloads of straw and hay, beside other products. He buys grain at Cavett in considerable quantities, and shipped eighty carload of shelled corn between October, 1894, and close of the year. He employs four balers, who scour the country for hay, buy it up and bale it on the spot, as they take with them the proper machinery. His office in Van Wert is on North Walnut street, near the Pennsylvania railway line, where, during the proper season, he gives due attention to the buying and shipping of grain, hay and straw.

The marriage of Mr. McMillen took place in Van Wert, April 15, 1879, to Jennie Wilmore, who was born in Mercer county, Ohio, and is the daughter of J. Wilmore. This union has been blessed with the birth of six children, named Dale, Bernice, Nellie, Lewis, Ralph and Ferris. The parents are both members of the Presbyterian church, to the tenets of which they strictly adhere. Fraternally Mr. McMillen is a chapter Mason, and in politics he is a stanch democrat, but not a partisan for the sake of office, as he finds a business life to be more profitable than office seeking. He is upright in all his business transactions, is liberal and useful as a citizen, and in his social relations is all that could be desired.

JOHN MARK, a prosperous farmer of Jennings township, Van Wert county, Ohio, and a hunter, is a son of Allen L. and Frances (Kirkpatrick) Mark, and was born in Allen county, Ohio, January 8, 1857. Allen L., the father, was born in Fayette county, Ohio, January 8, 1824, and was a son of Peter Mark, a native of Germany, who married Mary Magdalene Lagore, a native of France, who became the mother of twelve children, of whom three—Abner, of Missouri, Manigum, of Iowa, and Mathew W., of Fayette county, Ohio—are the only survivors, the father of our subject, having been the youngest of the twelve.

Peter Mark, grandfather of our subject, was a farmer and a very early settler of Fayette county. Allen L., his son, was reared a farmer in Fayette county, and August 17, 1845, married Frances Kirkpatrick, who was born in the county named December 2, 1826, daughter of John, who was born in Pennsylvania in 1790, and Elizabeth (Bush) Kirkpatrick, who was born in Virginia in 1806. To Allen L. and wife were born nine children, viz: Jane, wife of Archibald Findlay, a farmer of Auglaize county; Simmons, who died at Savannah, Ga., while in the army; Moab, of Oklahoma; Andrew, of Jackson Centre, Ohio; Elizabeth, deceased wife of Pierce Wright; John, our subject; Joseph, of York township; and Marcus and Merriott, twins, of Jennings township. John Kirkpatrick came down the Ohio river on a flat-boat in 1795 with his parents; after he grew to manhood he entered a tract of land in Fayette county, as already indicated, and there died in the faith of the Presbyterian church, while his wife was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

After his marriage, Allen L. Mark located in Allen county, and in 1851 entered 120 acres of land, which he cleared and improved, and in 1862 returned to Fayette county, where he resided one year, and then came to Jennings township, Van Wert county, where he farmed until his death, March 12, 1887. He was a republican in politics, and very popular, serving his fellow-citizens as township treasurer for a number of years, and also as township clerk and as justice of the peace; he was also very

Pension Application Of Samuel White, Natl Archives Microseries M804, Roll #__, Application #R18952
Norwalk, Huron County, Ohio, June 5, 1833, Samuel White, a resident of Hartland, Huron County, Ohio, aged 73 years: "That in order to ____ his services with the services of his brother, James White, the declarant states that his said brother, James White, in the year 1776, enlisted in the Continental Army for 3 years into a company commanded by Captain Samuel Miller of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania in Colonel ?Maclay's regiment. He does not recollect the name of the brigadier general. That his said brother served in said Continental company under General Washington near Philadelphia for one year."

"That about the end of said year, was in 1777, the declarant's father, Josiah White's wagon and 4 horses was pressed by the authority of the United States into their service and the said James having been used to said horses and wagon, then being under said establishment, was detailed and ordered to take charge of the same, and served as a teamster for part of his two following years, until the year 1779, when his said brother died at Quibble Town in New Jersey, about 10 miles from Philadelphia."

"That in 1779, the declarant says that his father's aid team wagon and horses were again pressed into the service of the United States. That the declarant then living at the town of Pastor in Lancaster County in the state of Pennsylvania being then about 16 years of age, and being also well acquainted with said horses and wagon, was pressed by authority of the United States to take charge of the same, which he accordingly did, and in the year 1779, he had charge and served with the same from the spring of that year to October or November following, not less than 6 months in hauling provisions: flour, rye, hay, ?swabs, ?drag ropes?, shovels from Cox's Town down to Staats Town, where, at the latter place, was a provision store. That he, loaded back with salt provisions, and back with flour and whiskey to Staats Town."

"That he also carried and dispersed the ?Teamsters of those who were pressed into the service under General Sullivan of the Continental Army into different parts of the country. One Doctor ?Wagner was surgeon of the regiment to which the declarant belonged. He served between said Cox's Town lying on the Susquehanna and Lancaster, and from the latter to said Staats Town in hauling cannons and ammunitions of war. Colonel Cox was the commander and superintendent of the store on the Susquehanna and of the teams. A number besides his said father's were pressed into service. He, the declarant, was under the immediate command of William ?L__, purchasing commissary and were under the general command of General Sullivan. The names of the clerks in Cox's store were Alexander Berryhill and the other's name was Cagley; he don't recollect his Christian name. Both were in the same store. The provisions he hauled to Cox's store were carried from thence up the Susquehanna to the Genesee country (he thinks in 1779) for the use of General Sullivan's army in his expedition against the Indians."

"After the capture of General Burgoyne at Saratoga in 1777, the American army moved to the southward and the French Fleet came into the Capes of the Delaware, the declarant then living also at Pastor. His said father's horses and wagon was again pressed into the services of the United States, and he the declarant, was again pressed to take charge of horses with the same, and that [illegible] under General Wash[illegible]

he hauled with it, provisions, whiskey and other articles in each of the summers of 1780 and 1781 from said Pastor and other places to Philadelphia. That he was employed in that service not less than 2 months in each of the said summers of 1780 and 1781. It took him generally 10 days to go ____ from Philadelphia. In the last mentioned service he was pressed and commanded by contractors and commissaries under the authority of General Washington."

"He was about 17 years of age when he served in 1780, and 18 in 1781. He never received a discharge while he served as aforesaid in teaming and hauling. He remembers George McMillan who commanded a company of militia. The name of the colonel of the regiment, he don't recollect. This Captain McMillan was employed in guarding the Hessians at Lancaster, a part of whom after their capture at Trenton, was brought to said Lancaster. He remembers Major John Gilchrist of the Continental army who was wounded in battle and died at Greensburg in Westmoreland County. He always took receipts for all the loads which he carried to different places during his services aforesaid."

"And the declarant further says that his father never made any contract with the United States respecting the use of said horses and wagon as aforesaid, nor did the declarant ever make any such contract, nor did his said father ever, according to the declarant's best knowledge, ever receive any compensation therefore, nor did the declarant ever receive any compensation for his said services, except one half bushel of salt. The declarant says he was in the habit of carrying straw and ground rye in his wagon, and was obliged many times to ?get ?uprights and out straw and out with the ground rye for provender for said horses. The public horses having provender being frequently at an inconvenient distance. That he generally lodged in his wagon, and he was much and frequently so full of loading that he was obliged to sleep under his wagon exposed to storms and bad weather, in consequence of which his constitution became much impaired, his limbs became much enfeebled.

He is now entirely helpless. I t has been over five years next September since he has been able to walk a step, even with the assistance of others. That he, in common with other soldiers, drew his rations at the public stores while he was impressed as aforesaid…That he was born in said Pastor in February 1760, and that he has no record of his age. That he lived, after the war, in the county of Washington near Pittsburg, Pa about 9 miles from said Pittsburg. Went from thence to Greensburg in Westmoreland County, lived there 8 or 9 years. >From thence he removed to Ohio near Youngstown where Judge Hirtland lived. He remained there about 2 years. From thence he removed to ?Asti___ town and county in said Ohio. Lived at the latter place about 7 years. From thence he removed to said Hartland, where he has lived 12 years."

"Upon further reflection, he remembers that the colonel of the regiment in which was the company commanded by Captain McMillan was Colonel Smith, and he remembers during his said services, he frequently saw General Washington who accompanied the army. The Rev. ____ Call of Florence in said county, and William Howland of Hartland in said county will testify respecting his services as a soldier of the Revolutionary War…"

"The declarant further says that very near the time of the peace between Great Britain and the United States, which closed the Revolutionary War (he cannot say positively whether it was before the close of said war or a short time after) he entered and served as a ranger or Indian spy for part of two summers, one under the command of Captain John Eliot, in Colonel John ?Campbell's regiment, and the other under Captain John Craig in a regiment commanded by the same Colonel ?Campwell. That he served ____ up the Allegheny River about 30 miles above Pittsburg, and at other places. That he served not less than 6 months in both said summers."

Early Methodism in Somerset C

By Raymond M. Bell

The first Methodist preacher on record to visit Somerset County was Robert Ayres, circuit rider on Redstone Circuit 1786-87. His JOURNAL, at the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania in Pittsburgh, tells of an exploratory trip to extend Redstone Circuit:

Thu Sept 21, 1786, rode 8 M rough road over Chestnut Ridge and stopped and fed. Then 10 M over the Laurel Hill to Jones Mills and there dined and fed. Thence 5 M to Michael Kings and tarried. I am now in what is called The Scrub Glades.

1786 Fri 22, After some time in the morning rode 2 M to Samuel Wrights, an old acquaintance, and tarried. Had much discourse on religious subjects. He seemed, I thought, almost persuaded to be a Christian.

Sat 23, Returned to Kings. Wrote several letters to York County.

Sun 24, Preached at Jacob Weimers and joined a Society of 10 or 12 members. My soul alive to God. Tarried at Brother Kings.

Mon 25, Rode about 8 M through the Glades, and through a beautiful grove of white pines and preached to a small number of chiefly Germans. I spoke as plainly as I could, but the Dutch I doubt did not understand. Herman Husband's wife was present who invited me home with her, where I tarried by importunity, that night, and was entertained with a variety of singular and wonderful opinions, or rather notions . . . And that the vast age of the patriarchs of which we read in scripture was not the age of the single persons, but the age of that government. And many other such things too tedious to insert.

Tue 26, Set out and rode about 4 M to Friend Beams, an old acquaintance, and tarried a few minutes, then rode over the Laurel Hill, a long and tedious path to Fort Ligonier, about 20 miles.

In 1803 James Quinn in Western Christian Advocate says that the preaching points in Somerset County were: Somerfield, Confluence, Michael Kings (Milford Township). .

After Redstone the work became a part of Pittsburgh Circuit, then Connellsville Circuit and in 1815 Somerset Circuit was formed. Robert Boyd in his Papers lists these preaching points for Somerset Circuit 1817—mostly private homes:

marriage Frank C. was the third in order of birth. Horace A. is a successful lawyer in the city of Toledo; James Eugene is the present auditor of Fulton county; and Minnie is the wife of William Biddle, residing on the old Merrill homestead, which was also the Vaughan homestead. Frank C. Merrill passed his boyhood days on the home farm, and after duly taking advantage of the local school privileges he continued his studies in the graded schools at Wauseon. After leaving school he resumed his connection with the agricultural industry, with which he has ever since been prominently identified, save for a period of three years, during which he conducted a general store in the village of Ai. He inherited one hundred and thirteen acres, to which he later added by the purchase of a contiguous tract of fifty-six acres, his farm being one of the best-improved and best-managed in the township of Fulton. Mr. Merrill has always affiliated with the Republican party, and has been a zealous worker in its ranks, usually attending the county conventions and at all times showing a public-spirited concern in local affairs. He has previously been called upon to serve as township trustee, to which office he was again elected in 1904. His honored father was likewise prominent and influential in local matters, and for a period of six years, from 1865, he held the office of county auditor, and he was also a member of the State constitutional convention of 1873, a stanch supporter of the Union during the Civil war and he was an ardent Republican from the time of the organization of the party until the time of his death. His remains were laid to rest beside those of his first wife, in the cemetery at Ai. Frank C. Merrill is a member of Swanton Lodge, No. 555, Free and Accepted Masons, and with Berry Grange, No. 1111, at Ai. In 1882 Mr. Merrill was united in marriage to Miss Etta Nobbs, a daughter of James H. and Anna (Fetterman) Nobbs, representatives of prominent pioneer families of Fulton county, where Mrs. Merrill was born and reared. Her paternal lineage is of English and her maternal of German extraction. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill have seven children: Herma, Clayton, Florence, Roy, Lucy, Koryl, and Mildred. Herma is now the wife of William Walters, and they reside on a farm adjoining that of her father. Mr. Walters is a son of Orlando Walters, mentioned elsewhere in this publication.

THOMAS MIKESELL, an honored citizen and retired farmer of Wauseon, is a representative of old and prominent families of Fulton county, and it is fortunate that in this work it is possible to enter a concise genealogical record, in addition to touching the more salient points in his individual career. George Mikesell was the grandson of a German immigrant who settled in northern Maryland early in the eighteenth century. George Mikesell was born near Cumberland, that State, December 15, 1776, and he resided in that locality until he was about twenty years of age, when he removed to the vicinity of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and a few years later took up his abode in Somerset county, that State. There, about 1794, he married Mary Bayes, daughter of Stephen Bayes, her birth having occurred April 28, 1773. This worthy couple became the parents of eight sons and four daughters. In the autumn of the year 1830 George Mikesell came with his family to Ohio and located in Holmes county, and in September, 1837, he came to what is now Clinton township, Fulton county, where he passed the remainder of his life. He was a stone and brick-mason by trade, and followed this vocation until he was well-advanced in years. In the spring of 1838 he put up a small kiln of brick, and with the product from the same he built a substantial fireplace and chimney for his log house, the brick thus manufactured having been the first made in Clinton township, and perhaps the first in the county. George Mikesell died October 9, 1840, and just one week later his devoted wife followed him to the life eternal. Both were consistent members of the Methodist Episcopal church. William Mikesell, son of George and Mary (Bayes) Mikesell, was born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, January 16, 1810, and he was there reared and educated, remaining on the farm until he had attained the age of twenty years. In 1830 he accompanied his parents on their removal to Holmes county, Ohio, where he rented land and engaged in farming. In 1832 he went to visit his old home in Pennsylvania, and when he returned the great flood of the Ohio river was on, the steamboats being enabled to run through the streets of Steubenville, Ohio. He was taken across the river in a rowboat, the river being at that time about four miles wide at the crossing point. May 23, 1833, he married Margaret Bayes, who was born June 4, 1811, being a daughter of Thomas Bayes, and she died December 4, 1855. They became the parents of two sons and one daughter. In 1836 William Mikesell, in company with his brother-in-law, Thomas Bayes, Jr., came to the wilderness of what is now Fulton county, and they made entry of fourteen eighty-acre tracts of land, for themselves and certain friends, traveling about much of the time on foot, as they had only one horse, which they rode alternately. In April, 1837, William Mikesell came with his family to their new home, making the trip with an ox team. Their embryonic farm was located in Section 14, Township 7 north, Range six east. The roads were so deep with mud that the trip from Holmes county consumed about three weeks, and they arrived on the last day of the month mentioned. Their little log cabin was erected in a few days' time, and that first spring Mr. Mikesell cleared two acres of his land and planted the same with corn, securing a fair yield. By fall he had cleared five more acres, which he sowed to wheat, securing a goodly crop, having brought sufficient flour with him to last until he could raise grain for further supplies. Deer, wild turkeys, pigeons, etc., were plentiful, and there was never a scarcity of meat in the family larder, for he was a successful hunter. Wild honey was readily secured and a supply was always kept in the house, and wild fruits also offered a valued contribution to the fare of the pioneers. The market town for this locality was Maumee City, which was twenty-six miles distant in a straight line, but which was many miles farther in actual travel, as the primitive roads wound about on the higher ground. Grain had to be hauled to that town to be sold or ground for family use. Mr. Mikesell also sold many deer hams, as well as the skins of deer, mink and coon, and in 1840 he paid the entire purchase price of a horse through his sale of such commodities. He continued the reclamation of his farm and was prospered in his labors. He never held public office except that he served one term as justice of the peace and two terms as township treasurer. His actual attendance in school covered a period of only six months, and yet he gained a fair education and was well-informed and possessed of mature judgment. He and his wife were converted soon after their marriage, and they ever afterward continued faithful and devout members of the Methodist Episcopal church, and their little home in the wilds of Fulton county was the stopping place of the early-day circuit riders of the church and was the place for holding the services. They were among the first members of the class which developed into the society which comprises the Methodist Episcopal church in Wauseon. Although it was the common custom in the early days to use whiskey freely at the harvest season and in the raising of buildings, Mr. Mikesell never used it or furnished it to others. Notwithstanding his attitude in this respect he never had difficulty in securing help in his farm work. He was an official in his church for many years, thus continuing until within a few years of his death, which occurred July 13, 1883. His first wife died in 1855, as has already been noted, and in the following year he married Mrs. Catharine (Pfouts) Bayes, widow of Meek Bayes, and they became the parents of one son, David, who is now a resident of Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Catharine Mikesell died December 26, 1869. Of the children of the first marriage the daughter died in infancy. John, born July 12, 1837, grew to manhood on the home farm, and in April, 1861, he enlisted in the Fourteenth Ohio volunteer infantry, for a term of three months, serving in West Virginia and receiving his discharge in August, 1861. He re-enlisted, becoming a member of the Sixty-eighth Ohio volunteer infantry, in which he rose to the position of fife major, serving with this command until after the battle of Fort Donelson, when, through exposure in the storms of February, 1862, he contracted pneumonia, from which he died, on the 12th of March. The other son, Thomas Mikesell, figures as the immediate subject of this review and is duly mentioned later on in this context. William Mikesell continued to reside on the old homestead farm until his death. He was nearly six feet in height, weighing more than two hundred pounds, and was possessed of great strength. He was genial and kindly, tolerant in his judgment, and ever tried to avoid trouble with his neighbors and all others with whom he came in contact in any of the relations of life. Thomas Bayes was born April 30, 1775, in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, and he died, in Fulton county, Ohio, September 2, 1850. He was a son of Stephen Bayes, of English and Scotch descent. About 1797 he married Ann McMillen, who was born March 31, 1776, and they became the parents of six sons and three daughters. About 1820, in company with his family, Mr. Bayes removed from the old Keystone State to Holmes county, Ohio, where he bought a farm, upon which he lived until 1837, his wife having died in 1836. He then sold his farm, and in September, 1837, with a large company of relatives, came to Clinton township, Fulton county, this section then being a part of Lucas county, and here he passed the residue of his life. He was a blacksmith by trade, and for a number of years had a shop in this county. He was the first justice of the peace in Clinton township, which was organized in 1838. He was a man of more than ordinary ability, served the public in different capacities, and he was an especial friend of the poor. He was an active Christian from young manhood, being a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal church, in whose faith he passed to his final reward. He was always found doing good, ever counseling the adjusting of difficulties between his neighbors without recourse to law, and he was humanity's friend at all times, ever holding the respect and confidence of all who knew him. Margaret (Bayes) Mikesell, daughter of the honored pioneer just mentioned, was born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, June 4, 1811, and accompanied her parents on their removal to Holmes county, Ohio, where on the 23d of May, 1833, she was united in marriage to William Mikesell. She proved a faithful helpmeet, a kind and loving mother, and was a gentle and faithful Christian. She knew the trials, labors and hardships of pioneer life, but hers was the faith that made faithful in all things and her life was one of signal purity and grace. Her health began to fail about 1851, and after much suffering from cancer she passed away on the 4th of December, 1855. Thomas Mikesell, son of William and Margaret (Bayes) Mikesell, was born on the homestead farm, one mile north of the present city of Wauseon, on the 9th of August, 1845, and this farm continued to be his home until 1902, when he sold the property and removed to Wauseon, where he has since lived practically retired. He attended the district school until he was thirteen years old, and thereafter he found amplified advantages in the high school at Wauseon, attending the same during several winter terms, assisting in the work of the farm during the summer months. In June, 1863, Mr. Mikesell enlisted in Company H, Eighty-sixth Ohio volunteer infantry, for a term of six months, serving until February 10, 1864, when he received his honorable discharge. His command assisted in the pursuit of Morgan during his historic raid through Ohio, in July, 1863, and in the expedition, under General DeCourcey, which resulted in the capture of Cumberland Gap, Kentucky, September 9, 1863. Within his term Mr. Mikesell was detailed and served as fifer of his company. He taught school in his home district during the winter of 1866-7, and the next winter was similarly engaged in Kosciusko county, Indiana. In the autumn of 1868 he went to Jasper county, Iowa, where he taught school that winter, after which he taught a three months' summer school in Sullivan county, Missouri. Returning to the old homestead in the autumn of 1869, he worked on the farm and also taught school during the ensuing two winters. In 1872 he was identified with the operation of a photographic business in Wauseon, after which he returned to the farm. In 1865 Mr. Mikesell began the study of meteorology, and since November, 1869, he has kept a systematic record of the weather conditions. In October, 1882, when the Ohio Meteorological Bureau was organized, he was appointed one of the observers, and has ever since continued to make reports to Columbus and Washington. In 1902 he was appointed special observer of the corn and wheat region service, and has reported by telegraph each day, from April 1st to September 30th, each year. In connection with the weather observations he has made phrenological observations for many years, these records being very interesting as showing the effect of climate on vegetable growth. In 1875 Mr. Mikesell began the systematic study of the birds of this region, and since 1883 he has kept a record of their habits and of the dates of arrival and departure of the migratory species, and of the relative numbers each year. A summary and discussion of these observations, by Professor J. Warren Smith, was published in 1904 by the United States Weather Bureau. In 1887 Mr. Mikesell was elected secretary of the Fulton County Pioneer and Historical Association, serving in that capacity until 1895, and he has taken much interest in preserving the early historical data of the county. In 1889 he was chosen secretary of the Fulton County Agricultural Society, retaining this incumbency sixteen consecutive years. He has seen the county fair grow from a representation of about fourteen hundred and fifty entries, in 1889, to more than thirty-three hundred, in 1904, and the amount of premiums paid from less than seven hundred to more than twenty-five hundred dollars. In politics Mr. Mikesell is a Republican, he is affiliated with the Grand Army of the Republic, and both he and his wife are zealous and valued members of the Methodist Episcopal church, in which he has been an official since 1887, having been secretary of the official board of the Wauseon church from that year to the present, and he has been treasurer of the board of stewards since 1894. It may be said that in his special studies and observations his purpose has been to increase the sum total of knowledge concerning nature and natural phenomena. November 23, 1873, Mr. Mikesell was united in marriage to Miss Martha Herriman, who was born near Ottokee, Fulton county, Ohio, April 21, 1850, being a daughter of John and Lettie (Wood) Herriman. She was about six years of age at the time of her mother's death, and was reared in the home of Thomas J. Case. There have not been any children born to this marriage.

HECTOR L. MILES, proprietor of a saw-mill and lumber business at Delta, was born in Norwalk, Ohio, August 2, 1852. He is a descendant of a family that has long been established in America, the ancestral farm being located between Lockport and Buffalo, where the Miles' ancestors were very early settlers. He is the son of David T. and Mary (Lee) Miles, both natives of New York State. David Miles removed with his parents to the vicinity of Norwalk when a lad of thirteen years, married at Brownhelm, Erie county, O., and located on a farm near Norfolk. Then he removed to Fulton county, about 1865, locating on a farm in the northern part of the county. After a residence of seven years here he removed to Clyde,

OBITUARY

22 October 1910

Thomas B. McKibbin was born in Holmes County, Ohio on February 24, 1835 and died at his home near Wauseon, Ohio on October 22, 1910 age 75 yrs. 7 mo. and 28 days. At the age of three years he came with his parents to Fulton County and has ever since lived in this community.

On July 1, 1858, he was united in marriage to Caroline Highshew. To this union was born one son, R.B. McKibbin, who is now engaged in business in Wauseon. For four years he and his first wife lived happily together, and then she passed away. On September 15, 1864, he was again united in marriage to Elizabeth Weirs. They lived together 29 years until December 11, 1893, when she too was called to the better world. To them were born six daughters. Of this number, four : Mrs. Cora Jones of Wauseon, Mrs. Nora Becker of Wauseon, Mrs. Nettie Brinkman who lives west of town, and Mrs. Edith Furney, with whom her father was making his home at the time of his death, still survive.

In the death of Mr. McKibbin, this community loses of its most substantial citizens. He came to this county when it was practically a wilderness, and has seen its wonderful development as the years have passed away. He too had his part in making it what it has become. His life has ever been one of busy activity. For more than fifty years, he lived on the farm where he died, and has ever been a faithful tiller of the soil.

At an early age, he was converted and united with the Methodist Church. He ever remained steadfast in the faith and with his passing away the Society of Wauseon loses one of her oldest and most substantial members. As long as he was able, he was a regular attendant upon the means of grace and when infirmities came and he was no longer able to do so, he was still greatly interested in the success of the church and the cause of Christ. In his death the community loses a kind and accommodating neighbor, the county loses a substantial citizen, the church loses a faithful and consistent member, and family loses a kind and loving father. But he died in the triumphs of a living faith and his loved ones "sorrow not as those who have no hope."

END

Thomas was the brother of my great-grandfather, Robert Irvine McKibbin, who was born in Wauseon in 1839. My great-grandfather and the younger brother, William, fought in the Civil war in CO K, 38th INF, Ohio Volunteers of the Union Army. There were only the three sons in the family. In addition to the three sons, there were several daughters: Margaret, Mary, Catherine, and Jane.

Thomas B. McKibbin and his siblings were the children of Thomas McKibbin (b.1806) and his wife, Eleanor Bayes. Eleanor was the daughter of Thomas Bayes and Anna Wright Bayes, and Thomas Bayes was the son of Rev. Jewel Bayes, a Methodist minister, and his wife, Nancy McMillan. The Bayes Cemetery, west of Wauseon, was begun by him. The grandfather of Thomas B. McKibbin was also named Thomas McKibbin, and he was born in Elkhart, Indiana and died in Delaware, Ohio, where he is buried in the Old Cemetery.

I am the great-grandaughter of Robert Irvine McKibbin and his wife, Nancy Fairchild McKibbin, and the granddaughter of Royal "Roy" Bird McKibbin and his wife, Beatrice Hughes, and the daughter of Capt. Hugh Robert McKibbin of North Arlington, Virginia, a graduate of the United States' Naval Academy and a former career naval aviator.

(Submitted by: Marilyn McKibbin Sigler. She was recently given their McKibbin family bible. In it she found the above obituary.)

This is Thomas Bayes, Jr.

THOMAS BAYES

The death of Uncle Tommy Bayes, as he was familiarly called occurred at his residence one mile west of town on Monday last. (May 6, 1889 – is penciled in) His death was not unexpected as he has been in feeble health for a long time. Mr. Bayes was born in Somerset Co., PA, May 19th 1806. He came with his parents to Ohio about the year 1816. He was married to Lamenta Swan November 6th, 1834 and moved to Fulton County in 1837, settling on the present site of Wauseon, his farm including nearly all of what is now the business portion. The house in which he lived while owner of the town site was situated on the east end of what is now the residence lot of Andrew Clark, fronting on Leggett Street and is remembered by the early settlers. He sold the track to Barber, Sargent and Leggett the proprietors of the town site and purchased the home where he has since lived and where he died. He was the father of ten children, six of whom survive him. His wife died some years ago. He was a man strictly upright and conscientious, doing what he believed to be right and just regardless of consequences. Possessing a nobility of character attained by few. He was a member of the M. E. church for 58 years his consistency and faithfulness on the line of duty being a model for many. The esteem in which he was held by the community was attested by the large attendance at his funeral which was held at his late residence on Wednesday last nearly 100 teams being in the procession. Rev. J. H. Fitzwater conducted the services and the remains were interred in the Bayes Cemetery.

 Thanks for getting in touch and hope we can document how the elderly Stephen Bayes in Somerset Co.PA fits into the family. Look forward to hearing from you again.

Dear Marilyn, Thank you for your kind words regarding my position in the Daughters. My genealogy searching is mostly on hold for this year. From time to time I will try to add a bit of what I have collected. Each time I go to OH I try to get in touch with Mark. I left the Bayes Civil War records that I had collected from the National Archives with him when I was home last summer. One can still page through the documents in the files and find afficavits from family and neighbors and occasionally an original discharge. I hope I can find a day now and then to go down to the Archives and collect more records. I believe there will soon be a time when one will not be able to see the original documents that were signed by our ancestors. They will probably be scanned, filmed or whatever technology will best serve at the time they decide to do this. At that time they will no doubt retain only those documents from the file that they feel will be of historical significance. One file that I copied had sixty pages and most of it contains detailed information concerning the wife's second husband, also a Civil War Veteran. Anyone searching for his records would parobably never find all that information on him. In fact before I finished reading thru the file I thought some one had mixed the files of these CW veterans.

For years I thought my line descended from John and his first wife, probably Agnes. John marrying Jane McMillen, his second wife. Mark finally convinced me that I was descended from Thomas and Anna Wright McMillen. As both had sons James born about the same time. I had John's will, some deeds and we had found Agnes' cemetery stone in the old Parker Methodist Cem. in Holmes Co. Not until we collected one document that had both a James Bayes and a James W. Bayes did we realize we had a problem. I am satisfied that Mark has sufficiently documented that I am from James, son of Thomas instead of John.

If you would be so kind as to send your snail mail address I will send copies of some documents to you. I do not have Mc Kibbin documents. However, I know there were McKibbins around Farmer, OH. That would be Defiance and Williams Counties. I don't remember hearing that we were relatives but bet we were. This is where I was born and raised,

I would like also to send you information about the Daughtere. We are the oldest lineal descended women's organization even predeeding the DAR. (I belong to it also). We have a headquarters in Springfield, IL. We have a museum where we preserve documents, artifacts, books, etc. It is free and open to the public. Local organizations are called Tents. We have two in Texas and another forming.

Just had a note from cousin Herschel Bayes in CA along with your Message #15 dated 11/14/99. Of course I had given him the info that we were descended from John so that all has to be changed. I hope he has corrected it in his computer.

Sorry to say I did not come up in this techy age and know only the minimum about this equipment that I have setting here. Want to learn more

Dear Ro..

I did not realize that you were also descended from Thomas Bayes and Anna Wright McMillen. My great-great grandmother, Eleanor Bayes, was their daughter, and James and John were her brothers. I am still trying to find out about the father of Thomas and Hugh and possibly William Bayes, the Reverend Jewell Bayes and his wife, Nancy McMillen.

In my research, I ran across a document in Pennsylvania that suggests that Anna Wright McMillen was not a Wright or a McMillen, but was married twice before to men named Wright and McMillen who died young. If this document is true, her maiden name would have been Rea. I also found information on Thomas Bayes and his leaving for Ohio in Washington County, PA.

I joined the Daughters two years ago because I was so interested in the Civil War (a hobby) and I wanted to make sure that the memory of my two great-grandfathers who fought in it was preserved. I do not have a tent here because I live in Houston, Texas, but I love the newsletters and hope one day to visit and meet other members.

Mark Lozier has been great about sending me information, and I have sent him what I have. I received a two hundred year old bible from my father, who died of cancer in April, and it was started by Eleanor Bayes (b. 1804 in PA) and her husband, Thomas McKibbin. I received this bible two years ago; it has launched me on my geneological quest. I reside in Houston, Texas, but I am from North Arlington, Virginia, where my mother still resides.

BAYES/ZEIGLER

Surname: BAYES, MCMILLEN, MCKIBBIN, WRIGHT, SIGLER

I noted with interest that you mention the BAYES family from Somerset county that moved to Fulton County, Ohio. My great-great grandmother was born Eleanor Bayes in 1804 in Turkeyfoot Township in Somerset County. Her parents were Thomas Bayes and Ann Wright McMillen (Bayes). Thomas was the son of a Methodist minister named REV Jewell Bayes (b. 1734, we know not where) who was married to Nancy McMillen. I am researching all of these lines and trying to trace them back to before they came to Somerset County. My McMillen and McKibbin families were Presbyterians. The Bayes family was Methodist, and I don't know what the Wright family was. Strangely enough, I married a Sigler, and Zeigler is pronounced like Sigler in Germany, where the Z is pronounced like an S. Do you have any more information on these families? Where did you get your information about the migration west? I would love to know.

Subject: Thomas Bayes

Date: Thursday, May 06, 1999
Classification: Query
Surnames: BAYES, McMILLEN, McKIBBEN

I am descended from Eleanor Bayes, who was born in 1804 in Turkeyfoot Township, Somerset County, PA. She was the daughter of Thomas Bayes and his wife Ann or Anna McMillen Bayes. Thomas was the son of the REV Jewell Bayes, a Methodist minister, who was born in 1734, but we don't know where. Thomas Bayes headed west from PA and eventually settled in Wauseon,Fulton County, Ohio, where there is a large Bayes cemetery. Many Bayes descendants are still in the area. Eleanor Bayes married Thomas McKibbin Jr., who was born in 1806 in Northern Ireland. Eleanor had two brothers, James and John, and an uncle named Hugh. The origin of this name seems to be Norman French and it is thought that it was originally DeBayeaux. Bayeaux (bay waters) being the name of a town in Normandy. I believe that Rev Jewell Bayes was descended from a Thomas Bayes of New England, going back to the 1600s. There are Churchills and Wrights on that same line, and Eleanor Bayes' middle name was Wright. Jewell was a family name as well. I think that Nancy McMillen and Anna McMillen may have been related in some way. I would love any more information on this particular Bayes family and would enjoy meeting other descendants of Thomas Bayes. My cousin Mark Lozier lives in Wauseon and he is descended from Eleanor Bayes' brother John. He has a lot of great photos and information to share.

Dear Roena..

I was so happy to hear from you, and you caught me at a very good time. We were away with my husband Jim's family in Colorado for two weeks, and in between times Jim has been back and forth to the hospital and has had one surgery in March for an aneurysm on his aorta, and another one because something happened during the surgery and a nerve was bothered which has caused great bladder problems. He has to self-catharize and he is on his 5th round of antibiotics. As you can see, this has not been a good year for us, but I am counting on the new year to be better.

My Bayes family is important to me, and I have been researching the family for some time. I am pretty sure that one Thomas Bayes, who came from Virginia (my family home) to PA and who bought land next to one Mr. John Jewell, was the ancestor of Jewell Stephen Bayes. I have a land record from 1699 when Thomas Bayes bought the Middletown, Bucks County, Land. I have lived in PA twice, and I wish I had known about the sale then so that I could have reseached the rest of it at the courthouse.

I am so interested in what you are doing. I keep in touch with the family members left in Wauseon, Ohio. My grandfather, Royal Bird McKibbin, was born in Lyons, OH, and I am not quite sure where that is. Eleanor Bayes was his grandmother, which is funny because she became Eleanor McKibbin, which was also my own mother's name.

My phone numbers are : Home (281) 440 1780 and Cell (713) 502 1776.

We will be driving to Tuscon, AZ on or about the 20th of the month because my husband is seeing friends there and I am going too. With luck we can manage to go a little further to San Diego where my mom's last sibling, my uncle Terrance, is living in an assisted living home. He is turning 77 (he was the baby of her family) on November 17th, and I promised I would get there for his birthday, since there is no family left there to visit him. We won't be able to stay that long, but we might stay for a day or two. Terry has congestive heart failure and can no longer drive, so he loves being taken out somewhere.
I hope to hear from you before I leave. I enjoyed reading your post so much.

Regards,

Marilyn

It really was a good idea so here I am. What's left of Farmer, not far from Bryan, is very little. Dad's old garage is still in operation but Mom's store is gone, replaced by the American Legion Home. Grandpa and Grandma Bayes' house has not been well taken care of and is pretty sad looking. The old Church which was right beside the store is celebrating it's 125th Anniversary this Sunday. That's about it in Farmer.

Margaret (Bayes) Mikesell 1811-1855

Margaret (Bayes) Mikesell was born in 1811, daughter of Thomas Bayes (1775-1850) and Anne McMillen of PA. She grew up in Somerset Co., and came with her parents in about 1820 to Holmes Co., OH. On May 23, 1833 Margaret married William Mikesell. He too was born and reared in Somerset Co., PA. William was born Jan. 16, 1810, the son of George and Mary (Bayes) Mikesell. They had two son and one daughter. In 1836 William an his brother-in-law Thomas Bayes, Jr. came to the wilderness of what is now Fulton Co., OH and they made entryof fourteen 80 acre tracts of land for themselves and certain friends. In 1837 William and Margaret and their family came to their new home, section 14, north of John Linfoot. They were faithful and devout members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and their little home was the place for holding the services. They were the among the first members of the class which developed into thesociety which comprised the Methodist Episcopal Church of Wauseon. He was an official of the church for many years, thus continuing until a few years of his death which occurred July 13, 1883, aged 73years, 5 months and 21 days. His wife Margaret died of cancer Dec. 4, 1855. After her death William married a second time to Catherine (Pfouts) Bayes, widow of Meek Bayes in 1856. They became the parents of David Mikesell. Catherine died Dec. 26, 1869, and is buried in the Bayes Cemetery.

Just started working this family, one bio turned up.
Researcher Olive Layton <Olayton2@aol.com, May 2001, has:
ID: I2264 Name: Thomas BAYES Birth: 1615, Norfolk, England 1
Death: bet 4 Feb and 31 May 1680, Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts 1
LDS Baptism: status: CLEARED Endowment: status: CLEARED
Sealing Child: status: PRE-1970
BIOGRAPHY: History of Martha's Vineyard pp. 38-41.
Thomas Bayes was a sturdy yeoman, the Miles Standish of the Vineyard. He was martial leader of the little settlement of Great Harbor. He appears first in New England records as a signer of the Covenant at Dedham, Mass. in 1636. He married Ann Baker there on 26 Dec 1639. He was born probably in Norfolk, England in 1615. He was a proprietor at Great Harbor as early as 1652. There he served as hog reeve in 1652, constable in 1655, leader of the train band in 1656, 1661-3, selectman in 1676. Marilyn believes that one Thomas Bayes who came from VA (my family home) to PA + who bought land next to one Mr. John Jewel, was the ancestor of Jewell Stephen Bayes. I have a land record from 1699 when Thomas Bayes bought the Middletown, Bucks County, land.

- Write all dates as day, month, and year, such as 4 Oct 1996.
- Write all places in order of smallest to largest political jurisdiction, separated by commas, such as Tryon, Polk, North Carolina, USA, or Wymondham, Norfolk, England.
- If you need room to write additional information, use the "Notes" section below.
- When you fill out a family group record for a person, write the number of the family group record next to the "F" in the status box under the name (for example, F 6).
